

CHAPTER IV

CONCLUSION

East java is one of the provinces in Indonesia with potential destinations. Almost every regency or city area has attractive tourist destinations. To manage all of them, the government needs the organization or institution called Dinas Kebudayaan dan Pariwisata Provinsi Jawa Timur (East Java Government Culture and Tourism Service) which is responsible for managing tourist attracts well and this institution is one of the organizations which manages all culture and tourism related to the city.

The writer did his apprenticeship in Dinas Kebudayaan dan Pariwisata Provinsi Jawa Timur for five weeks, from 14th January 2013 to 14th February 2013. Culture, Art and Movie Department in Dinas Kebudayaan dan Pariwisata Provinsi Jawa Timur has main responsibilities to carry out the implementation of activities in the development of culture, art and movie. It has three sections to help the implementation of its duties and functions.

After finishing his internship, the writer learnt a lot about cultures in East Java Province, several events in culture, art and movie department and traditions in Dinas Kebudayaan dan Pariwisata Provinsi Jawa Timur. The writer got some knowledge about how to work in group, how to translate some articles or letter well, how to manage time effectively, how to speak to older people and how to give information to visitors. The implementation of them are such as typing letters, scanning files, helping for preparing some events and helping the other senior staffs.

The writer has suggestion to the staffs of Dinas Kebudayaan dan Pariwisata Provinsi Jawa Timur especially in culture, art and movie department to improve the performance of work and focus to make the job done more easily and quickly. This suggestion aimed for development of culture and tourism service in East Java Province. Finally, the writer hopes the information and experiences that he got from the internship could be useful for him and other people in the future.